

Christopher Noblet Partos & Noblet in co-operation with Hogan Lovells

BCCH council member: 2002 to date

BCCH treasurer & executive committee member 2002-2013

Christopher Noblet is a partner at Partos & Noblet, the Budapest office of international law firm Hogan Lovells. Christopher has been working in Budapest since 2000.

Christopher specialises in corporate/commercial law. His work has included both advising multi-national companies on their investments in Hungary as well as advising Hungarian companies. Christopher is an English qualified lawyer and is a registered Hungarian lawyer at the Budapest Bar.

Christopher is currently a board member of the BCCH and was the treasurer & an executive committee member between 2002 and 2013. During his time in Hungary, Christopher has assisted in organising and has spoken at various events, including events of the BCCH, the Hungarian Venture Capital and Private Equity Association, the Budapest Bar Association, the law faculty of ELTE and PILnet (formerly the Public Interest Law Institute).

Prior to moving to Hungary, Christopher worked in the London office of Hogan Lovells. He speaks English and Hungarian.